UDR Named to Newsweek's 2024 List of America's Most Responsible Companies

DENVER, CO., December 13, 2023 – UDR, Inc. (the "Company") (NYSE: UDR), a leading multifamily real estate investment trust and GRESB Sector Leader for its sustainability leadership, announced today that it has been named one of America's Most Responsible Companies by Newsweek.

"We are honored that Newsweek has recognized UDR as one of America's Most Responsible Companies for the third consecutive year," said Tom Toomey, UDR's Chairman and CEO. "Our inclusion in this list is a reflection of our comprehensive ESG program, innovative and adaptive culture, and commitment to corporate responsibility."

Companies included in Newsweek's America's Most Responsible Companies for 2024 list were selected based on publicly available key performance indicators ("KPIs") derived from Corporate Responsibility Reports, Sustainability Reports, and Corporate Citizenship Reports as well as an independent survey of approximately 17,000 United States residents. The KPIs focused on company performance in the environmental, social, and corporate governance areas, while the independent survey asked United States citizens about their perception of company activities related to corporate social responsibility. The final list recognizes the top 600 most responsible companies in the United States, spanning 14 industries, and can be accessed online at https://www.newsweek.com/rankings/americas-most-responsible-companies-2024.

Additional details on UDR's corporate responsibility efforts, goals, and measurable ESG targets and outcomes can be found in the Company's annual ESG Report and on its ESG website.
