NetScout Employees Reap the Rewards of Team-Building Playhouse Project

WESTFORD, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 21, 2015-- NetScout Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: NTCT), a market leader of service assurance solutions, today announced we will once again team up with Habitat for Humanity East Bay/Silicon Valley to assist children of families with members actively serving in the military. This marks the fifth consecutive year that NetScout is a sponsor of the playhouse program bringing people together to help make a difference in their community.

When: Thursday, May 21, 2015 from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. PDT

Where: NetScout Systems, Inc., 178 E. Tasman Drive, San Jose, CA 95134

On this day, an eager team of NetScout employees will put down their computers and cell phones and pick up hammers and nails to assemble and decorate a playhouse to be donated to 3-year old Jaden, son of a Coast Guard Dad. Jaden has requested a “Castle-themed” playhouse and the volunteers of this project cannot wait to surprise him.

“As a technology market leader, it is our corporate responsibility to drive positive social and environmental change together with our employees, customers, and partners. We practice that social responsibility as part of our everyday business model by developing longstanding relationships with charitable organizations and corporate volunteerism,” said Ken Boyd, chief information officer and senior vice president of services at NetScout. “The playhouse event Habitat for Humanity East Bay/Silicon Valley presents to our employees will stay in the hearts and minds of each individual way beyond the event date because they are giving back to a family that has served our country."

The Habitat for Humanity East Bay/Silicon Valley Playhouse Program has donated playhouses to organizations including InnVision, Community Solutions, and Silicon Valley Center for Independent Living, Camp Harmon, Aspiranet, and Child Advocates and Blue Star Moms.
