The accompanying notes to the condensed interim consolidated financial statements are an integral part of these condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

1. Nature of operations

Kits Eyecare Ltd. (the "Company" or ”KITS”) is vertically integrated, digitally native eyecare platform, with sales primarily in the United States and Canada. The Company was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on October 19, 2018 with its registered headquarters located at 1020 - 510 Seymour Street, Vancouver, BC, V6B 3J5.

The Company is listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) under the symbol “KITS”.

2. Basis of preparation and statement of compliance

The Company prepares its annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS® Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and interpretations of the IFRS Interpretations Committee. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting (IAS 34).

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s most recent annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, as some disclosures from the annual consolidated financial statements have been condensed or omitted.

Effective January 1, 2026, the Company adopted the amendments to IFRS 9, Financial Instruments, and IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments. The amendments did not have a material impact on the Company’s condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

IFRS 18, Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements (IFRS 18), was issued in April 2024 and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of IFRS 18 on the presentation of its consolidated financial statements. Other than IFRS 18, there are no IFRS or International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee interpretations that are not yet effective that would be expected to have a material impact on the Company’s condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

On November 3, 2026, the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) authorized these condensed interim consolidated financial statements for issuance.

Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In preparing these condensed interim consolidated financial statements, management has made judgements and estimates that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The material estimates and judgements made by management in applying the Company’s accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those described in the most recent annual consolidated financial statements.

3. Segment information and deferred revenue

The Company operates in a single reportable operating segment, the sale of eyewear products to consumers.

Geographic information

The Company determines the geographic location of revenue based on the location of its customers. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the USD/CDN exchange rate appreciated by 1.6% and depreciated by 1% (2025: appreciated by 1.0% and 2.7%).

Total	$ 63,695	$ 52,392	$ 179,591	$ 148,567

4. Financial liabilities

(a) Loan – BDC Loan

The Company entered into a secured loan agreement (the "BDC Loan") for $23.4 million with BDC Capital Inc. ("BDC") on March 26, 2019, with a repayment date of April 15, 2026 and a monthly contractual principal payment of $250. Effective as of January 15, 2021, the BDC Loan bears interest at BDC's floating rate plus a variance of 4.45% per annum and is payable on a monthly basis. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company entered into a loan amendment with BDC providing for, among other things (i) adjusting the final payment to $150 payable on April 15, 2026 and (ii) amendments to various covenants. The BDC Loan was secured by a first ranking security interest in all present and after acquired personal property and all present and future intellectual property of the Company. The Company was subject to various covenants under the BDC Loan, including requirements to maintain certain financial ratios.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company elected to repay the loan in full. This early repayment was executed without any penalties or fees.

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company made repayments of $nil and $nil (2025: $784 and $3,301) and recognized $nil and $nil (2025: $47 and $216) of interest expense in finance costs. Interest expense is calculated by applying the effective interest rate of N/A (2025: 10.25%).

(b) Loan – BMO ABL Facility

On November 24, 2025, the Company entered into a revolving asset-based lending facility with the Bank of Montreal (the "BMO ABL Facility"). The BMO ABL Facility provides a maximum borrowing capacity of the lesser of $15.0 million or a borrowing base determined by eligible accounts receivable and inventory. The agreement includes an uncommitted accordion feature allowing for a potential increase of up to $5.0 million, subject to lender approval. The BMO ABL Facility matures on November 24, 2028 and bears interest at variable rates based on, at the Company's option, CAD Prime, US Base Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA, or Adjusted Term SOFR, plus an applicable margin. As at December 31, 2025, the Company's borrowings bore interest at the CAD Prime rate plus 0.75% at 5.2%.

The facility is secured by a first-priority lien on substantially all present and future personal property of the Company. The Company has various covenants under the BMO ABL Facility, including requirements to maintain certain financial ratios. The BMO ABL Facility is in good standing as of the date hereof.

The Company repaid the remaining outstanding balance under the BMO ABL Facility in full during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. There were no further drawdowns or repayments under the facility during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. As at September 30, 2026, the outstanding balance under the facility was $nil (December 31, 2025: $9,988).

Transaction costs associated with the BMO ABL Facility were capitalized and are being amortized on a straight-line basis over the 36-month term of the agreement. The current portion of these costs is included within prepaid expenses, deposits and other assets, while the non-current portion is recorded as Deferred financing costs. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, $17 and $52 (2025: $nil and $nil) of these costs were amortized and included within finance costs.

(c) Promissory note

On January 18, 2021, the Company issued a promissory note of $2,412 (the "Promissory Note"). The note bears no interest and matures on the earlier of January 31, 2026 or the date after the Company's current loan from BDC Capital has been repaid in full (the "Maturity Date").

As at September 30, 2026, the carrying value of the Promissory Note was $nil (December 31, 2025: $290), following repayment in full of the remaining principal during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, a total principal of $nil and $290 (2025: $nil and $2,122) was paid to the Promissory Note holders. The Company recorded accretion expense of $nil and $nil (2025: $nil and $16) in finance costs. Accretion expense is calculated by applying the effective interest rate of 8.00%.

5. Financial instruments and fair values

(a) Investments

As at September 30, 2026, the Company held no investments measured at fair value through profit and loss ("FVTPL") (December 31, 2025: $3,859).

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company recognized a fair value loss of $nil and $343 (2025: $nil and $nil) in respect of these investments within finance costs. As at September 30, 2026, the Company no longer held any investments measured at FVTPL. Prior to disposal, the fair value of these investments was determined based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets.

The following table shows the carrying amount and the fair values of investments, including their levels in the fair value hierarchy:

September 30, 2026	Carrying value	Fair value measurement Level 1	Fair value measurement Level 2
Financial assets
Investments	$ -	$ -	$ -
Total	$ -	$ -	$ -

December 31, 2025	Carrying value	Fair value measurement Level 1	Fair value measurement Level 2
Financial assets
Investments	$ 3,859	$ 3,859	$ -
Total	$ 3,859	$ 3,859	$ -

(b) Fair values

The Company characterizes fair value measurements using a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs depending on the degree to which they are observable. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1: fair value measurements are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3: fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include significant inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value because of the short-term nature of these financial instruments. These financial instruments are classified as financial assets and liabilities at amortized cost.

There are no financial liabilities that are measured at fair value. The following table shows the carrying amounts and the fair values of financial liabilities, including their levels in the fair value hierarchy.

September 30, 2026	Carrying value	Fair value measurement Level 2	Fair value measurement Level 3
Financial liabilities
Loan (note 4(b))	$ -	$ -	$ -
Promissory note	-	-	-
Total	$ -	$ -	$ -

December 31, 2025	Carrying value	Fair value measurement Level 2	Fair value measurement Level 3

Promissory note	290	290	-
Total	$ 10,278	$ 10,278	$ -

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, there have been no transfers of amounts between Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

The classification of the financial instruments as well as their carrying values as at September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 is shown in the table below.

Valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs

To determine the fair value of financial liabilities at initial recognition, the Company considered the present value of expected payments, discounted using a risk-adjusted discount rate. As at September 30, 2026, none of the Company's financial liabilities are subsequently measured at fair value after initial recognition, except the long-term incentive plan (LTIP) that is remeasured to fair value at each reporting date based on the share price and other performance outcomes.

Capital management

The Company manages its capital, which consists of equity and long-term debt, with the objectives of safeguarding sufficient net working capital over the annual operating cycle and providing sufficient financial resources to grow operations to meet long-term consumer demand. The Company prepares and updates its annual operational results based on the Company's short- and long-term objectives and monitors actual operating results compared to the forecast to ensure that there is sufficient capital on hand to grow its operations. The Board monitors the Company's capital management on a regular basis. The Company will continually assess the adequacy of the Company's capital structure and capacity and make adjustments within the context of the Company's strategy, economic conditions, and risk characteristics of the business.

Market risk
Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise interest rate risk, foreign currency risk and other price risk.

Interest rate risk
The Company is exposed to changes in interest rates on its cash and cash equivalents and loans. The Company's debt under the BMO ABL Facility is subject to a variable interest rate based on the prime rate plus a margin.

As at September 30, 2026, the Company's exposure to interest rate risk is not significant as there was no borrowing during the quarter. Management has determined that a 1% change in the prime rate would not have a material impact on the Company's condensed interim consolidated statements of income (2025: nominal).

Currency risk
The Company's and its subsidiary's functional currencies are the Canadian Dollar ("CAD") and the United States Dollar ("USD") respectively. The Company is exposed to fluctuations in the USD and the CAD relative to these functional currencies. The Company has not entered into any agreements or purchased any instruments to hedge possible currency risks at this time. The Company is exposed to the following currency risk as at September 30, 2026:

	September 30, 2026		December 31, 2025
	USD	CAD	USD	CAD
Cash and cash equivalents	$ -	$ 2,036	$ -	$ 14,210
Accounts and other receivables	-	2,373	-	1,588
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	-	(12,647)	-	(14,170)
Current Portion of Loan	-	-	-	(9,988)
Total	$ -	$ (8,238)	$ -	$ (8,360)

A 10% strengthening in the Canadian dollar against the U.S. dollar on net monetary accounts would, with all other variables being constant, have an approximately unfavorable impact of $749 (2025: $444) on net income.

Credit risk
Credit risk refers to the possibility that the Company can suffer financial losses due to the failure of the Company's counterparties to meet their payment obligations. The Company is exposed to minimal credit risk. The Company does not extend credit to customers, but does have some receivables exposure with respect to payment processors transferring customer funds to the Company and to rebates receivable from the Company's vendors. The majority of accounts and other receivables are settled in under 30 days. In order to reduce this risk, the Company uses industry leading payment processors, including Braintree Payment Gateway, American Express, Shopify and PayPal. The Company deposits its cash and cash equivalents with major financial institutions that have been assigned high credit ratings by internationally recognized credit rating agencies. As such, exposure to customer credit risk is nominal (2025: nominal).

Liquidity risk
