Veeva Partners with Sanofi to Transform its Quality System

5/10/2023

Leading pharmaceutical company to streamline quality processes across the enterprise

PLEASANTON, Calif., May 10, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Veeva Systems (NYSE: VEEV) today announced that Sanofi is implementing Veeva Vault QMS and Veeva Vault QualityDocs to modernize quality management across the company, including consumer healthcare (CHC). As the first key milestone of Sanofi's implementation, the CHC division is now live with Vault QualityDocs and the first business processes of Vault QMS. To streamline content management and GxP training, the CHC division also selected Veeva Vault Training. The rest of Sanofi will go live over the coming year.

"Building a strong foundation of quality systems and processes is critical to our success," said Maïté Durrenbach, chief quality officer at Sanofi. "Veeva Vault Quality Suite delivers a highly scalable enterprise solution that supports our ambition to set up a more dynamic quality operating model which is high-performing and data-driven. This will enable the Sanofi Play to Win transformation."

Adopting a unified quality solution with industry best practices will advance Sanofi's broader digital transformation initiatives. With Veeva Vault Quality Suite, Sanofi will standardize quality management across all divisions and sites on a modern cloud platform.

"We're excited to partner with Sanofi on their quality transformation journey," said Mike Jovanis, vice president, quality and manufacturing at Veeva.

As the shift to digital quality gains momentum, more than 500 life sciences companies use Vault Quality applications to modernize quality management across R&D and manufacturing. To learn more about Vault Quality,
