Quarterhill Appoints Paul Sunderland as Interim President & Chief Executive Officer of VIZIYA Corp.

2019-11-13

KITCHENER, ON, Nov. 13, 2019 /PRNewswire/ - Quarterhill Inc. ("Quarterhill") (TSX: QTRH) (NASDAQ: QTRH) today announced the appointment of Paul Sunderland, a seasoned veteran enterprise software executive, as Interim President & Chief Executive Officer of its VIZIYA Corp. ("VIZIYA") subsidiary effective November 13, 2019.

John Gillberry, Chair of Quarterhill's Board of Directors, said "Paul comes to VIZIYA with an impressive background with extensive global experience in project management, operations, customer service, business development and engineering and development all in large enterprise software. Paul's impressive experience in managing software sales and development for some of the world's leading engineering and construction projects and helping manage relationships between the stakeholders in those projects and software development will be a great asset to our organization going forward."

Mr. Sunderland brings more than 40 years of experience with large technology companies to VIZIYA. From 2002 to 2018, Mr. Sunderland served as Senior Vice-President of Coreworx Inc., a private enterprise software company where he developed and led relationships with key customers including some of the world's largest oil and gas, engineering and construction, transportation and logistics and manufacturing companies. Prior to Coreworx, Mr. Sunderland spent 25 years working in senior technology leadership roles at large companies such as AT&T Canada and Bell Canada and with the Canadian Department of National Defence.

Mr. Sunderland holds a Bachelor of Engineering degree in Electrical Engineering from the Royal Military College in Kingston, Ontario.

Quarterhill and VIZIYA wish to thank founder and original driving force John Vujicic for his years of service to VIZIYA as its outgoing President & Chief Executive Officer.
