Leading Australian law firm will use cloud-based Intapp Time to help lawyers work faster, reduce risk, and focus on delivering outstanding client outcomes

PALO ALTO, Calif., April 29, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Intapp (NASDAQ: INTA), a leading global provider of AI-powered solutions for professionals at advisory, capital markets, and legal firms, announces that Australian leading legal practice, Colin Biggers & Paisley, has chosen Intapp Time to modernize its timekeeping practices and enable more efficient work processes for its professionals.

"We're thrilled that Colin Biggers & Paisley has chosen to go to the cloud with Intapp Time," said Laura Saklad, Legal Industry Principal at Intapp. "AI-powered data capture empowers the firm's lawyers to focus on client delivery outcomes while ensuring full revenue realization by complying with client obligations."

Leading change

Colin Biggers & Paisley's decision to move to Intapp Time aligns with the firm's strategy and commitment to leveraging innovative technology to enhance efficiency and compliance in today's fast-paced legal market. During the evaluation process, firm leadership prioritized replacing their legacy solution with a new, cloud-based time system designed to enhance operational efficiency.

"Our goal has always been to provide our lawyers with technology that saves time, fosters client satisfaction, and lets them focus their efforts on high-value client work," said Sam Sofianos, CIO at Colin Biggers & Paisley. "Intapp Time, with its AI-powered time capture capabilities, enables our lawyers to record their time more accurately. This not only helps in improving our efficiency but also frees our IT team from the burden of managing on-premises infrastructure."

Modernizing timekeeping

As a modern timekeeping solution, Intapp Time will help Colin Biggers & Paisley's partners and professionals accurately record and submit detailed accounts of the time spent on each matter. The solution provides highly configurable templates and seamless integrations with financial and practice management systems to simplify timekeeping processes and increase timecard accuracy. Intapp Time also offers flexible timekeeping methods, native and integrated compliance capabilities, and Applied AI to help professionals easily recreate their days, adhere to client billing requirements, and minimize missed and under-recorded effort.

Adopting a more modern, compliance-forward approach to timekeeping will help Colin Biggers & Paisley streamline its billing process, reduce billing disputes, and increase both client satisfaction and the firm's topline revenue. Advanced reporting and dashboards will also help the firm's leaders accurately evaluate engagement resources and track time against budget to optimize utilization and profitability.
