Laureate Education Announces Pricing of $800 Million of Senior Notes

2017-04-21

BALTIMORE, April 21, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Laureate Education, Inc. (Nasdaq: LAUR) ("Laureate") announced today that it has priced an offering of $800 million aggregate principal amount of 8.250% senior notes due 2025 (the "Notes"). The offering is expected to close on April 26, 2017, subject to customary closing conditions.

Laureate intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes, together with a portion of the net proceeds from its initial public offering and net proceeds from the recently announced $1,985 million senior secured credit facilities, to (i) repay, redeem or repurchase certain of its outstanding 9.250% Senior Notes due 2019 (other than certain of such senior notes that the holders of which have agreed to exchange for shares of Laureate's Class A common stock), (ii) repay the Company's term loans under its senior secured credit facilities, (iii) repay the seller notes used to partially finance the acquisition of FMU Group, and (iv) pay certain related fees and expenses in connection with the offering.

The Notes and the related guarantees have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and other applicable securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities, nor shall there be any sales of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes certain disclosures which contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the U.S. federal securities laws, which involve risks and uncertainties. You can identify forward-looking statements because they contain words such as "may," "will," "intends" or "expects" or similar expressions that concern Laureate's strategy, plans or intentions. Forward-looking statements are based on Laureate's current expectations and assumptions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements, which are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from Laureate's expectations are set forth in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 under the caption "Risk Factors."
