ACNB BANK RECOGNIZED ON FORBES 2026 LIST OF WORLD'S TOP PERFORMING BANKS

Gettysburg, PA, October 14, 2026 --- ACNB Bank is proud to announce its recognition on the Forbes 2026 World's Top Performing Banks list, ranking 66 out of 149 banks in the small-bank category. Forbes' inaugural World's Top Performing Banks ranking recognizes the 500 top-performing banks globally. Produced by Forbes in partnership with market research firm Statista, World's Top Performing Banks ranking evaluates financial institutions using objective financial performance data from their most recent fully available fiscal year. The ranking measures banks across factors including profitability, growth, capital strength, funding resilience, asset quality and operating efficiency. ACNB Bank's 66 global ranking among 149 institutions in the small-bank category highlights the strength and consistency of the organization's financial performance within its peer group. The recognition further demonstrates ACNB's ability to deliver strong results while maintaining a disciplined approach to growth, capital management and asset quality.

James P. Helt, President and CEO of ACNB Bank, stated, "Being recognized as the top-performing bank in Pennsylvania in the small-bank category makes this recognition particularly meaningful. It speaks to the strength of the business we have built at ACNB and the consistency of our performance across the measures that matter most to a bank — profitability, growth, capital strength and asset quality. To see that performance recognized on a global list alongside banks from around the world is a significant accomplishment for ACNB and a reflection of the disciplined approach we have taken to growing the organization for nearly 170 years."

Forbes 2026 World's Top Performing Banks list recognizes 500 financial institutions worldwide, with banks evaluated within size categories to provide meaningful comparisons among institutions with similar operating characteristics.
