ACNB BANK PARTNERS WITH U.S. MINT AND GETTYSBURG NATIONAL MILITARY PARK AND VISITORS CENTER FOR HISTORIC COIN EXCHANGE

Gettysburg, PA, October 22, 2026 --- ACNB Bank served as the exclusive host bank for a special public coin exchange on October 21, 2026, at Gettysburg National Military Park and Visitors Center, helping celebrate the release of the United States Mint's Semiquincentennial Gettysburg Address quarter in recognition of the nation's 250th anniversary in 2026.

In partnership with the U.S. Mint and Gettysburg National Military Park, ACNB Bank coordinated the sold out, on-site public coin exchange at the Gettysburg National Military Park Museum and Visitor Center. The event brought together community members and visitors to commemorate this milestone in American history and experience the release of a new circulating coin honoring one of the nation's most significant historical moments.

The Gettysburg Address quarter is part of the U.S. Mint's semiquincentennial coin program, which commemorates the 250th anniversary of American independence. The coin recognizes President Abraham Lincoln's enduring legacy and the historic significance of his Gettysburg Address, delivered in November 1863 at the dedication of Soldiers' National Cemetery.

"ACNB Bank is honored to have been invited to play a role in this special opportunity to celebrate our nation's history right here in Gettysburg," said James P. Helt, President and Chief Executive Officer of ACNB Corporation and ACNB Bank. "As a community bank with deep roots in the region, we value opportunities to partner with organizations that preserve our nation's heritage and bring our communities together. Being part of this historic coin release made the 250th anniversary celebration especially meaningful."

The public ceremony featured remarks from Brandon Beach, Treasurer of the United States, Paul Hollis, Director of the Mint, Barbara Sardella, interim President and CEO of Gettysburg Foundation and Stephanie Stephens, Gettysburg National Military Park Superintendent, along with a Civil War-era brass band performance and a ceremonial coin pour. Following the ceremony, members of the public had the opportunity to participate in the coin exchange and obtain the new Semiquincentennial quarter. ACNB Bank was the only financial institution guaranteed to receive these coins for the exchange, providing community members and visitors with a unique opportunity to obtain the newly released coins. A limited number of quarters will be made available for ACNB Customers at three local offices starting Monday, November 2, 2026, and will be first come, first served. Participating offices include West Gettysburg, 545 West Middle St., Gettysburg, PA 17325, North Gettysburg, 675 Old Harrisburg Rd., Gettysburg, PA 17325 and Lincoln Square, 16 Lincoln Square, Gettysburg, PA 17325. Quarters will be exchanged at a minimum quantity of one roll of $10 and a maximum of two rolls, or $20 per person.

ACNB Bank's participation reflects its ongoing commitment to supporting the communities it serves and preserving the rich history and heritage of the region. Through partnerships and community engagement, ACNB Bank continues to connect people, strengthen local relationships and celebrate the people and places that make its communities unique.
