Ledyard Announces New Concord, NH Branch

2020-10-08

HANOVER, N.H.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ledyard National Bank, headquartered in Hanover, New Hampshire, is pleased to announce that it is expanding its services in Concord, NH by opening its full-service banking branch on Monday, October 19, 2020. Ledyard's first Concord office, offering wealth management, commercial and mortgage banking services, opened on Pillsbury Street at the end of 2016.

The new full-service branch, located at 74 South Main Street, features an innovative design and cutting-edge technologies including an Interactive ATM in the drive-thru, where a remote Ledyard teller can help you complete your banking transactions from the safety of your car. These advanced banking tools combined with Ledyard's high level of personalized service will offer the community an enhanced banking experience. Kathryn Underwood, President and CEO of Ledyard National Bank remarked, "Ledyard is thrilled to be expanding further into the great city of Concord. As a community bank, we are looking forward to offering even more services in Concord and to meeting the personal and business banking needs of the community, helping to support local businesses, and contributing to the economic growth of the area."

Ledyard prides itself on providing the support necessary to help communities thrive. As Teresa Rosenberger, Ledyard Bank board member, underscores, "Utilizing our employees' local knowledge, community immersion, and local decision-making capabilities, we work tirelessly to help clients achieve their goals."

Locally owned and managed, Ledyard has served the Upper Valley, Lake Sunapee, and Concord regions for the last 29 years with seven retail banking locations and three wealth management offices. Committed to serving New Hampshire and Vermont, Ledyard is honored to remain the local bank of choice for so many New Englanders. For more information, please visit www.ledyardbank.com.
