Recognized since 2012, Henry Schein is one of three honorees in the Healthcare Products industry. In 2025, 136 honorees were recognized, spanning 19 countries and 44 industries.

"Henry and Esther Schein founded our Company in 1932 with a sense of purpose and commitment to enduring values – including upholding the highest ethical standards – that are key to business success," said Stanley M. Bergman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein. "Our values help to build trusted relationships that are the foundation to enable us to adapt to changing markets and evolving needs of our customers. We thank Ethisphere for recognizing Team Schein's longstanding effort to be successful in business while creating positive impact through helping make the world healthier, together."

Henry Schein Cares, the Company's global corporate citizenship program, aims to drive impact through five pillars: catalyzing health care access; advancing policies, solutions, and innovation; relationship building for change; empowering Team Schein; and sustaining the planet. By adhering to these pillars, Henry Schein is committed to "doing well by doing good." The Company understands that its long-term growth is enhanced by creating shared value through engaging each of the key stakeholders that make up Henry Schein's Mosaic of Success – Team Schein Members, Customers, Suppliers, Shareholders, and Society at Large.

Examples of the Company's 2024 corporate citizenship efforts include:

- Continuing to expand the capacity of health care providers to serve those in need by donating over $22.6M worth of product and cash for 2024 to various non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, UN agencies, and industry partners;
- Supporting the needs of Team Schein and health care professionals by partnering with more than 10 key global non-governmental organizations to provide critical disaster relief in response to the devastation caused by Hurricanes Helene and Milton, as well as the severe flooding in Spain and Brazil, ensuring aid reached those in need;
- Catalyzing public-private partnerships within health care through initiatives such as the S.M.I.L.E. Healthcare Pathway™ Program and the American Dental Association Foundation's Give Kids A Smile® program;
- Launching Prevention Is Power™, a multi-year public health awareness campaign to empower health care professionals with tools and information to educate patients in accessing preventive, integrated health care to improve overall health outcomes;
- Updating Worldwide Business Standards, which reflect today's environment in the Company's ethical behaviors and actions;
- Issuing Global Principles on Data Protection and Security and the Responsible Use of AI Systems;
- Continuing to nurture a culture in which Team Schein Members can feel engaged and included through programs such as Henry Schein Games, Connection Days, and more;
- Launching a Voice of the Employee continuous-listening program to capture feedback from Team Schein Members on their employee experience and enable ongoing improvement.

"Congratulations to Team Schein for being recognized as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies® for the 14th consecutive year," said Erica Salmon Byrne, Ethisphere's Chief Strategy Officer and Executive Chair. "Our team continues to be impressed by Henry Schein's dedication to advancing business integrity and its corporate citizenship efforts and initiatives focused on positively contributing to society."

Ethics & Performance: The Ethics Premium

The listed 2025 World's Most Ethical Companies® Honorees outperformed a comparable index of global companies by 7.8 percentage points from January 2020 to January 2025.

Methodology & Scoring

The World's Most Ethical Companies assessment is grounded in Ethisphere's proprietary Ethics Quotient®, which requires companies to provide 240+ different proof points on practices that support robust ethics and compliance; governance; a culture of ethics; environmental and social impact; and initiatives that support a strong value chain. That data undergoes further qualitative analysis by our panel of experts who spend thousands of hours vetting and evaluating each year's group of applicants. This process serves as an operating framework to capture and codify truly best-in-class ethics and compliance practices from organizations across industries and from around the world.
