

Henry Schein Medical to Spotlight Latest EMS Innovations at FDIC International

April 2, 2025

Fire and EMS Professionals Can Explore the Company's Lineup of Comprehensive Solutions for Mobile Integrated Health and Community Paramedicine Models of Care

MELVILLE, N.Y., April 2, 2025 – Henry Schein Medical, the U.S. medical business of Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC), will present its range of equipment, technology solutions, and services at the 2025 FDIC International conference in Indianapolis. The Company's featured solutions are designed to help first responders strengthen patient outcomes and enhance efficiencies.

From April 10 – 12, 2025, the Henry Schein Medical EMS team will be onsite (booth #422) to provide demonstrations of tools specifically for mobile integrated health (MIH), community paramedicine, and other community-based models.

"As a team with deep roots in emergency medicine, we are excited to return to FDIC International to connect with fire and EMS professionals," said Dan O'Connell, General Manager of Henry Schein Medical EMS. "This year, we're especially eager to showcase our expanding portfolio of MIH solutions, including lab testing and imaging, which empower EMS providers to deliver high-quality care directly in patients' homes. We understand that every EMS agency has a unique path to MIH, and we remain committed to providing customized solutions that support their needs and enhance patient outcomes."

Experience Product Demonstrations

During the meeting, demonstrations of the following products will be available: Abbott i-STAT 1 handheld blood analyzer and Piccolo Xpress portable diagnostic analyzer, Butterfly portable ultrasound, EchoNous KOSMOS portable ultrasound, First Res patient lifting straps, Masimo Rad-57® Pulse CO-Oximeter®, and VendNovation asset control equipment with its cloud-based inventory control software.

Explore Featured Supplies

Featured products in the booth include the Ambu® SPUR® disposable resuscitator, Ansell MICROFLEX® Lifestar EC™ gloves, BD® Intraosseous Vascular Access System, Disaster Management Systems Inc. Rapid Response and Triage products including medical tags and vests, Graham Medical's MegaMover® Transport Units, Henry Schein Blood Collection needle, Medsource Capnography IV catheters, O-Two E 700 transport ventilator, Safeguard Medical's SIMBODIES manikins and RAMPART Color-Coded Trauma System, and Statpacks trauma bag offerings.
