the lives of thousands of children in South Africa!" said Mannatech CEO Al Bala.

"By serving for an hour or two at this fun, hands-on service event with our Mannatech team, we'll have a huge, positive impact on

The meal assembly will include Mannatech's PhytoBlend™ product, a plant-based powder that mixes easily into a variety of foods such as soups, rice and porridge. It contains over 20 vitamins and minerals to help promote and maintain good health and vitality.

"This is all possible through our partnership with Mannatech and their incredible associates and customers," said M5M's Executive Director, Sarah Bowen. "For every $100 spent on Mannatech products, a one-month supply of PhytoBlend powder is donated to help nourish a child in need - but this meal assembly program at MannaFest is an even bigger demonstration of love. It is wonderful, and we are grateful to Mannatech for it.”
