NEWS RELEASE

Accendra Health Receives Continued Listing Standard Notice from NYSE Regarding Market Capitalization and Stockholders' Equity; Intends to Submit Business Plan and Return to Compliance with NYSE Listing Standard

2026-10-30

RICHMOND, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Accendra Health, Inc. (NYSE: ACH) (the Company) today announced that on October 27, 2026, it received a notice (the "Notice") from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") notifying the Company that it is not in compliance with Section 802.01B of the NYSE's continued listing standards that the Company have an average market capitalization of not less than $50.0 million over a consecutive 30 trading-day period and stockholders' equity of not less than $50.0 million. The Notice does not result in the immediate delisting of the Company's Class A Common Stock (the "Common Stock") from the NYSE.

The Company intends to respond to the NYSE within ten business days of receipt of the Notice affirming its intent to submit a business plan. Pursuant to Section 802.01B, the Company has a period of 45 calendar days following receipt of the Notice to submit a business plan that demonstrates how the Company intends to regain compliance with Section 802.01B within 18 months of receipt of the Notice. The NYSE will review the business plan and, if accepted, the Company will be subject to quarterly monitoring by the NYSE of the progress of the business plan.

The Company's Common Stock will continue to be listed and trade on the NYSE during this period, subject to its compliance with other NYSE continued listing standards. The receipt of the Notice does not affect the Company's business, operations or reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
