Teradata Expands Strategic Operations in Mexico to Tap the Region's Growing Talent Pool

2022-05-12

New office in Mexico City creates up to 200 jobs, including opportunities in the cutting-edge technology fields of data science, cloud, and product engineering, as well as IT, finance, and accounting

Teradata (NYSE: TDC) is expanding its presence in Mexico by opening a new office in Mexico City and immediately hiring up to 200 new employees in the fields of engineering, data science, customer support, marketing, finance, accounting, IT, and cloud operations. Teradata's investment in Mexico reflects the company's confidence in the depth of the country's technology talent pool. Mexico's tech workforce is growing rapidly with more than 110,000 engineers graduating from top Mexico universities each year, representing more than 20% of all graduates.

"We are excited to tap into the extensive talent pool that Mexico City has to offer — especially in the fields of technology, engineering and finance — to ensure the brightest minds in tech are working to innovate our products and services for our enterprise customers around the world," said Dan Spurling, Senior Vice President, Product Engineering at Teradata.

Gartner® recently named Teradata as a Leader in the 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant™ for Cloud Database Management Systems report and Teradata Vantage – the company's multi-cloud analytics platform — ranked highest in all the analytical use cases in 2021 Gartner Critical Capabilities for Cloud Database Management Systems for Analytical Use Cases, including ranking highest in the new Critical Capabilities category for Data Lake.

The company has been a technology industry leader in the data analytics space for more than 40 years — with a presence in Mexico for more than 15 years — and employs more than 7,000 people globally.

Fifteen of the top 20 global telecommunications companies, 15 of the top 20 global banks, 13 of the top 20 manufacturing companies, and 9 of the top 10 global healthcare providers are Teradata customers around the world.

Teradata is offering a wide range of career opportunities at its Mexico City office, from entry-level through management positions. The company provides competitive compensation packages with bonus opportunities, industry-leading benefits, and a flexible work environment.

Teradata is committed to inclusive hiring practices and for 12 years has been named to the Dow Jones Sustainability North American Index for Software and Services. The company is financially strong and profitable, with almost $2 billion in revenue by the end of 2021.
