NEWS RELEASE

Metropolitan Commercial Bank Announces Appointment of Jason Bishop as Group Head of Commercial Real Estate Lending

2026-07-02

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB” or the “Bank”) today announced the appointment of Jason Bishop as Group Head of Commercial Real Estate Lending (CRE), reinforcing the Bank's commitment to relationship-focused commercial lending solutions, financial excellence, and sustainable long-term growth. In his new role, Bishop will lead MCB's Commercial Real Estate Lending division, overseeing business development, portfolio growth, and strategic lending initiatives.

Mr. Bishop joins MCB with more than 23 years of commercial real estate banking and finance experience. He has a proven track record of relationship management, business development, loan structuring, and portfolio management across multifamily, industrial, hospitality, and medical office properties.

Most recently, Bishop served as Vice President in the Commercial Real Estate Relationship department at TD Bank, where he led business development efforts for the New York tri-state region and managed a portfolio exceeding $2 billion. Throughout his career, he has held senior leadership positions at top financial organizations.

"Jason's extensive experience, market knowledge, and relationship-driven approach make him an outstanding addition to Metropolitan Commercial Bank," said Scott Lublin, Executive Vice President, Chief Lending Officer at Metropolitan Commercial Bank. "His leadership will further enhance our ability to provide sophisticated commercial real estate financing solutions while supporting the Bank's continued growth. At MCB, we believe strong relationships are the foundation of long-term success. We remain dedicated to understanding our clients' unique goals, delivering thoughtful banking solutions while helping build and sustain generational wealth.”

"Metropolitan Commercial Bank has established a reputation for relationship-based banking, financial discipline, and a forward-looking approach to growth," said Bishop. "I am excited to join an organization that places such a strong emphasis on understanding clients' unique needs and creating tailored solutions that help them achieve their long-term goals. I look forward to contributing to the continued success of the Bank and its clients."

Bishop holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting with a minor in International Business from the State University of New York at Plattsburgh and has been actively involved in commercial real estate and community organizations throughout the greater New York region.

About Metropolitan Commercial Bank

Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB") is a New York City–based, full-service commercial bank serving businesses, institutions, and individuals who value expertise, responsiveness, and long-term partnerships. Since 1999, MCB has built enduring client relationships—many spanning generations—by delivering consistent, relationship-driven banking.

The Bank provides a full suite of commercial, business, and personal banking solutions, with deep expertise in sectors including real estate, property management, legal services, healthcare, government, and global investors utilizing EB-5 financial solutions. MCB combines specialized capabilities with a highly personalized approach, offering integrated solutions such as title and escrow services, 1031 exchanges, and merchant acquiring.

MCB has received national recognition for its performance and innovation, including being named one of Newsweek's Best Regional Banks in 2024 and 2025 and earning industry recognition for its lending performance and specialized commercial banking capabilities.

MCB operates full-service banking centers in Manhattan and Boro Park, Brooklyn, within New York City; Great Neck on Long Island; Lakewood, New Jersey; and in South Florida, including Miami, and West Palm Beach.

Metropolitan Commercial Bank is a New York State–chartered commercial bank, a member of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and an equal housing lender. The Bank's parent company is Metropolitan Bank Holding Corp. (NYSE: MCB).

For more information, please visit the Bank's website at MCBankNY.com.

212-365-6721
IR@MCBankNY.com

Source: Metropolitan Commercial Bank