

Metropolitan Commercial Bank Bolsters Its Commercial Lending and Deposit Vertical with a Former JP Morgan and PNC Bank Expert – Anthony Ter-Gevondyan

2023-05-24

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Metropolitan Commercial Bank (the “Bank”), a New York City-based full-service commercial bank, announced today the appointment of Anthony Ter-Gevondyan as Vice President, Commercial Lending Officer.

“Anthony is our latest new hire in our concerted effort to find the best-of-the-best banking executives as we look ahead to further strengthening our institution,” said Mark R. DeFazio, President and CEO of Metropolitan Commercial Bank. “His commercial construction, equipment, financial services and healthcare lending and deposit vertical expertise will allow us to broaden our deposit and lending relationships in the Florida market. Anthony will be located in our Brickell, Florida office and report to Danny Tommasino, First Vice President, Group Head of Commercial Lending for Metropolitan Commercial Bank.”

Anthony Ter-Gevondyan started his banking career with JP Morgan Chase. He later moved to PNC Bank to focus on healthcare finance. Anthony received a double major bachelor’s degree in economics and math from Hunter College, a certificate in credit analysis from NYU School of Professional Studies and a Medical Practice Executive (CMPE) certification. With more than 13 years of experience in banking, Anthony has an extensive background in commercial lending, treasury services and middle-market banking.

“I am honored to join Metropolitan Commercial Bank as a commercial banker. I am also extremely excited to be part of a true entrepreneurial commercial bank that empowers businesses with tailored financial solutions for growth and prosperity. I am committed to leveraging my expertise alongside the Bank’s exceptional resources,” said Anthony Ter-Gevondyan, Vice President, Commercial Lending Officer for Metropolitan Commercial Bank.
