Metropolitan Commercial Bank Unveils New Signage at Lakewood Banking Center

2026-08-20

New exterior signage reflects the Bank's longstanding commitment to the Lakewood community

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Metropolitan Commercial Bank ("MCB" or the "Bank") (NYSE: MCB) today announced the installation of new exterior signage at 311 Boulevard of the Americas in Lakewood, New Jersey, home of MCB's Lakewood Banking Center.

Metropolitan Commercial Bank - Lakewood, NJ: New exterior signage reflects the Bank's longstanding commitment to the Lakewood community.

In 2020, the Bank signed a long-term lease at 311 Boulevard of the Americas with Chopp Holdings LLC and subsequently completed a comprehensive build-out of the space to support its growing business in the market.

"MCB has served the Lakewood community for more than two decades," said Mark R. DeFazio, Founder, President & CEO of Metropolitan Commercial Bank. "Our new signage reflects the relationships we have built here and our continued commitment to the businesses, organizations and individuals we serve."

The Lakewood Banking Center provides clients throughout Lakewood and the surrounding area with access to MCB's commercial banking solutions and personalized, relationship-based service.

"MCB is an important part of the Lakewood business community, and we are proud to have the Bank at 311 Boulevard of the Americas," said Mark Chopp, Managing Partner of Chopp Holdings. "The new signage gives MCB greater visibility and reflects the Bank's established presence in the community."
