David DeLucia Joins Coastal States Bank as Vice President, Business Banker

2025-09-24

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Coastal States Bank ("CSB") has announced the addition of David DeLucia to its team as Vice President, Business Banker in its Atlanta region.

Bringing more than 18 years of experience in business banking to his role, David has extensive expertise in supporting businesses across a wide range of industries. His knowledge of the North Georgia and Metro Atlanta markets positions him to help small businesses achieve their goals and navigate today's dynamic financial environment with customized lending, deposit, and treasury management solutions.

"We are excited to welcome David to the CSB team," said Gary Dowell, CSB's Atlanta Regional President. "David has built a strong reputation for delivering tailored financial solutions and cultivating long-term client relationships. His experience, client-focused approach, and community commitment align perfectly with our mission to deliver personalized, relationship-driven banking to our local business communities."

David is a graduate of the University of South Florida, and is actively involved in the community, volunteering with several Metro Atlanta organizations dedicated to supporting veterans.
