"The OppFi story at its core is one of creating real social impact in the financial system. We focus on creating measurable, positive change in the financial health of individuals and communities by facilitating innovative financial products and providing exceptional customer experience," said Jared Kaplan, CEO, OppFi.

OppFi defines three key areas to drive clarity and results to its social impact initiatives:

- Facilitate consumer access to the best available credit
- Build consumer financial health and support financial education
- Deliver exceptional customer service aligned to satisfaction benchmarks and fair standards

"Our model is one of building financial inclusion and championing better financial health, improved outcomes, and increased financial resiliency for our customers," adds Kaplan.

On February 9, 2021, OppFi and FG New America Acquisition Corp. (NYSE: FGNA), a special purpose acquisition corporation, entered into a definitive agreement for a business combination that would result in OppFi becoming a public company.
