Released via Form 6-K on April 15, 2022 and queued for release via RNS upon its reopening on April 19, 2022.

ACCESS TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT FILINGS IN YPF-RELATED CASES

Burford Capital Limited, the leading global finance and asset management firm focused on law, previously noted that summary judgment filings in the YPF-related cases were scheduled to occur on April 14, 2022.

Those filings occurred as scheduled and, like all US federal court filings, are available on the Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system at www.pacer.uscourts.gov. Users must register for a free PACER account to search for filings, and there is a small fee to access the filings themselves. The YPF-related cases are pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and their case numbers are 1:15-cv-02739-LAP (for the Petersen case) and 1:16-cv-08569-LAP (for the Eton Park case).

Burford provides this update solely to inform that those filings occurred and the mechanics of accessing them; Burford does not generally issue releases about court filings and will not do so routinely in the YPF-related cases or any other matter. Burford does not comment on the substance of pending cases as it is for the court to determine the matters raised in the filings. Burford notes that filings of this type contain partisan advocacy as is appropriate in the adversarial system of common law justice.

As previously advised, according to the current timetable, the parties are expected to exchange responses to these filings on May 26, 2022, and to exchange replies on June 23, 2022. Thereafter, the process is in the hands of the court, including whether and when to hear oral arguments and issue a decision.

Forward-looking statements

This announcement contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, regarding assumptions, expectations, projections, intentions and beliefs about future events. These statements are intended as "forward-looking statements". In some cases, predictive, future-tense or forward-looking words such as "aim", "anticipate", "believe", "continue", "could", "estimate", "expect", "forecast", "guidance", "intend", "may", "plan", "potential", "predict", "projected", "should" or "will" or the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. In addition, we and our representatives may from time to time make other oral or written statements which are forward-looking statements, including in our periodic reports that we file with, or furnish to, the US Securities and Exchange Commission, other information sent to our security holders and other written materials. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. We caution you that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are based on numerous assumptions, expectations, projections, intentions and beliefs and that our actual results of operations, including our financial position and liquidity, and the development of the industry in which we operate, may differ materially from (and be more negative than) those made in, or suggested by, the forward-looking statements contained in this announcement. Significant factors that may cause actual results to differ from those we expect include those discussed under "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission on March 29, 2022 and other reports or documents that we file with, or furnish to, the US Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. In addition, even if our results of operations, including our financial position and liquidity, and the development of the industry in which we operate are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in this announcement, those results of operations or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods.

Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements contained in this announcement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
