CAPITAL MARKETS EVENT

Burford Capital Limited ("Burford" or "the Company"), the leading global finance and investment management firm focused on law, will today host a Capital Markets Event in London for shareholders, investors and analysts between 3.00-6.00pm Greenwich Mean Time.

The event will be hosted by Christopher Bogart, Burford's Chief Executive Officer, and will feature presentations from members of Burford's senior management team. The slide presentations will be made available on Burford's website later today. No new material financial information will be disclosed.

Subscription to the in-person event is now closed due to seating at the venue being fully reserved. However, Burford is hosting a webcast that will provide a real-time video broadcast of the event.

Registration for the webcast is required and can be completed through accessing the following facility:
https://secure.emincote.com/client/burford/burford001. Those persons who have already registered should visit the same URL and enter their registration email address to gain access to the webcast.

Following the event, a recording of the webcast will be available until 26 November 2018 through a replay facility accessible through the Burford website:
