Claritev Joins CHAI in Support of Mission to Improve Innovation and Safety for Health AI

MCLEAN, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Claritev Corporation ("Claritev" or the "Company") (NYSE: CTEV), a healthcare technology, data, and insights company focused on making healthcare more affordable, transparent, and fair for all, today announced it has joined the Coalition for Health AI ("CHAI"). CHAI is an industry-led coalition committed to developing industry best practices and frameworks to further innovation, safety and security for health AI.

Through its membership, Claritev plans to collaborate with CHAI's diverse community of health systems, researchers, patient advocates, and technology leaders to help establish best practices and frameworks for responsible AI development and deployment across the healthcare ecosystem.

"Joining CHAI is a natural extension of our mission to improve healthcare affordability and transparency through responsible, data-driven innovation," said Fernando Schwartz, Ph.D., Chief Artificial Intelligence Officer of Claritev. "We are proud to be part of a coalition that shares our values and is actively shaping the future of health AI in a way that delivers meaningful impact for patients, providers, and payors alike."

"I am thrilled to welcome Claritev to our growing community of organizations committed to advancing effective and responsible health AI," said Brian Anderson, CHAI's CEO. "We are driven by the engagement and expertise of our members and the feedback of our broader health ecosystem and the public. We look forward to working together to unlock the potential benefits of AI, on a foundation of trust, safety, and security."

As part of CHAI, Claritev looks forward to contributing its deep expertise in healthcare data integration and analytics to support initiatives focused on transparency, fairness, safety, and privacy in AI. Claritev will also explore opportunities to participate in CHAI's working groups and contribute to community-led dialogue around the responsible use of AI in healthcare.
