Texas Roadhouse CFO, Price Cooper, Resigns

LOUISVILLE, Ky.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Texas Roadhouse, Inc. (NasdaqGS:TXRH) announced that Price Cooper, Chief Financial Officer, has resigned to take on an expanded Chief Financial Officer position for Krispy Kreme Doughnuts, Inc. (NYSE:KKD).

Cooper joined Texas Roadhouse in 2006 and was promoted to CFO in August of 2011.

"We have been blessed to have Price as part of our team for the past eight years. We are sad to lose him and we wish Price and his family the best of luck," said Scott Colosi, President of Texas Roadhouse.

Texas Roadhouse also announced that in addition to his role as president, Colosi will also serve as CFO in the interim. Colosi served as CFO of Texas Roadhouse from 2002 until his promotion to president in 2011.

According to CEO and Chairman of the Board, Kent Taylor, "Given Scott's longtime role as CFO and our great finance team, we are confident that the transition will be as smooth as the butter melting on our rolls."
